DANIEL GROWS REMINISCENT

Vance's Name a Household Word Among the Common

PEOPLE OF THE OLD NORTH STATE

The Senator is a Delightful Talker. Appears in a Case Before the Railroad Commission Today.

Senator John W. Daniel was at the Benbow last night on his way to Raleigh where he appears today in a case before the Railroad Commission. The Senator is a delightful talker when he is in the humor, and the conversation turning on the colleagues he has known in the Senate, he contrasted the two noble old war horses, Senator Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee and Senator Zebulon B. Vance, of North Carolina, the two greatest men perhaps, that either state has had in the Senate. The Senator said that Vance and Harris were totally different types. Harris was haughty, gruff, imperious, almost overbearing in his manner; a man bent on having his own way and one who did not brook opposition very gracefully; and yet of such sterling worth that he was admired even by his enemies.

Vance, on the other hand, was the same genial, witty, magnetic Vance in the senate, whose name has become a household word among the common people of this state. No man, the Senator said, (his face lighting up as he recalled the great North Carolinian) could know Vance without loving him. He agreed that if Vance were alive today, the re-united Democracy would follow his lead to victory in this state.

The Senator said in regard to the Virginia campaign, that the Republicans would, in his opinion, put a nominee in the field for governor, but he regarded it as improbable that the Populists would endorse him, or that a Republican governor could be elected in the Old Dominion, even with the aid of the Populist party.

COME ALONG, GREENSBORO.

You Shall be Royally Received and Well "Entertained."

It will be one of the happiest days of Charlotte's existence when the Greensboro football team comes this way. "She may kick the life out of us, but we will have the points on her," said a Charlotte footballist this morning to a News reporter.

"We are making no great bluster, but you can say through the News that Charlotte will be ready in a short while to meet all comers," said Mr. John Schenck to a reporter this morning.

The boys will in a few days get together. They are now awaiting the arrival of Mr. George Stephens, who is expected most any day. Then the club will be formed.

The News learns that the personnel of the team this year will be considerably changed from last season. In each instance the boys claim that it will be materially strengthened.

If this be the case, Charlotte will bank on her team winning more "scalps" than ever before.

The News would respectfully suggest to Mr. Clem Wright, of the Greensboro team, that he had better place himself on "guard duty," and utilize all spare moments in kicking the "pigskin" from now until that day.—Charlotte News.

We would suggest to that animated piece of India rubber, Q-back Schenck, that he will have to "rar' back on his dew-claws" endurin' of the aforesaid game.

A DECISION FROM JUDGE ADAMS.

Commissioners May be Compelled to Grant Liquor License.

The application for a mandamus against the Commissioners of Chatham county to compel them to issue a license to A. P. Terry to retail spirituous liquors at Pittsboro, was heard yesetrday before Judge Adams. The judge issued a mandamus commanding the Commissioners to pass upon the petition of Mr. Terry and ascertain if the facts required by the statute existed, and if so to issue the license.

He holds that the commissioners of a county under the act of 1897 have not an arbitrary power to refuse to grant all applications, but do possess a qualified or legal discretion only in such matters.

The "Shooter" Arrested.

Officer Poindexter, of Winston, was here this morning going to Wilson after G. Harris, the negro who shot Will Tatum in Winston a few weeks ago. He emptied his pistol at Tatum, four balls taking effect, three in the thigh and one in the arm. The negro has about recovered.

It is reported that Harris shot a man in Danville since his flight from Winston, but there is no evidence that this is true. He has been in Wilson two or three weeks. The police of that town spotted him and notified the Winston authorities, and a warrant was sent out and he was arrested there yesterday. He will be carried to Winston tomorrow night to await his trial at November term of court.

No name could be made out on the vessel and all her life boats were missing. It is possible that she was caught in the West India hurricane as she lay right in its path.

Smouldering Ruins Alone Remain of the Traction Power House.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 30.—The firemen are still working over the ruins of the Capital Traction Company's power house which was burned last night. Nothing remains of the massive six story structure, except a part of the two side walls. The fire was one of the largest ever known in Washington. The exact cause remains unknown, though it has been established that the fire started in Gettinge's printing office on the second floor. The amount of loss is roughly estimated at three quarters of a million dollars; of this the Traction Company lost over six hundred thousand dollars while it carried only three hundred thousand dollars of insurance. Another building will be erected immediately. Horse cars have been put in service again today. A number of of buildings in the immediate vicinity suffered from the fierce blaze. The largest loser was Charles Walker, whose carriage factory and contents were damaged to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars. He had no ininsurance.

1st. Keep the leaves swept from the valleys and gutters of your house—a spark may ignite them.
2nd. See that your flues are in safe and sound condition.
3d. Use metal vessels exclusively for taking up ashes and let them stand 24 hours before emptying, or empty on ground apart from any fence or building.
90 per cent. of dwelling house fires result from sparks on roof, defective flues, and taking up ashes in wooden vessels.

INQUIRE WITHIN.

Whatever may be the shortcomings of the "American Protective Tariff League," it can never be urged against it that it is short on that peculiarly American virtue denominated cheek. We are just in receipt of "Circular No. 112"—it would seem to be a continued story—which goes on to set forth the many virtues of a new edition de luxe of the Dingley tariff law and winds up by saying "This book should be of great service in answering all questions which may be submitted to you." Truly we should like to have a pocket edition. Among the many properties and uses of that measure we had not learned that it was an up-to-date encyclopedia and oracle all in one. The poet was manifestly correct when he said of it:

"Perhaps its sections may contain
Some interesting notes,
On safe routes to the pole and how
The Keely motor motes."

If our readers are struck with evidences of budding omniscience in our columns, they will please attribute it to the proper source. We shall be able to tell all comers Now how "section 22" got into the bill and we shall get its own version of how it will wipe out that abysmal deficit. We shall be able to tell with equal facility who will be first mayor of Greater New York, what became of Luetgert's spouse and whether it was "The Lady or the Tiger."

But the pure pellucid gall of the League wells up in all its rich limpidity in the postscript to "circular No. 12" where we are assured that the League will be under "additional obligations" if we will do a few dollars worth of free advertising of this marvelous book which we are assured sells, in the language of the circus man, for "only twentee-fieve cents." If by accident any of our readers should not know everything they will appreciate this "last chance" to remove the blemish.

IN view of President McKinley's declaration that congress will ratify the annexation treaty Ex-queen Lilioukalani may be pardoned for harboring a few choice regrets for the good days of Grover Cleveland.

THE reports of insurgent attrocities in Cuba indicate that General Weyler has been driven to the final desperate expedient of subsidizing the imagination of some American newspaper reporter.

THE Sultan has grown languid under the amusements of treating with the powers and bowstringing an occasional vizier and has returned to his first love, massacreing Christians in Armenia.

MR. MCKINLEY must be possessed of a very vindictive soul if he cannot forgive Thomas Bracket Reed that small sized presidential boom that he carried to St. Louis with him last year.

SO FAR the mayoralty nominations thrown upon the waters in New York have a good, stout string tied to them.

SENATOR BUTLER announces in his paper today that "the few black sheep will be driven into outer darkness." This may be presumed to settle beyond all cavil the color of Otho's fleece.

THE report that a London company will put a trolley system in Dublin is a new evidence of England's ineradicable hatred of the Irish.

GENERAL WEYLER will be known in history as the astute commander who added the type-writer to the munitions of war.

President Faure, of France. sent a message to Emperor William of Germany expressing sympathy with the German government in the sinking of a torpedo-boat and the drowning of the young Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and eight of the crew. The German government returned a message of thanks.

A dispatch from Warsaw says it has been discovered that the principal street of Warsaw was tunneled shortly before the recent visit of the Czar to that city. The conspirators, whose design was evidently to cause an explosion as the Czar passed over the tunnel, became apprehensive of a collapse of the roadway. They called in some Polish masons to build supports and the masons informed the police. One hundred and thirty arrests followed, including four disguised German officers, who had been active in the tunneling.

Cuban Insurgents Lose Heavily.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

Tarboro sold yesterday 50,000 pounds of tobacco.

Keeper Burns was acquitted of the charge of assault with deadly weapon.

Mr. Yezoye, of Yokohoma, will come to this country to attend the A. and M. college.

Race purses will be given at the Rocky Mount fair aggregating $4000 this year.

The building will be a handsome one and the sanitarium will be conducted on high principles.—Salisbury Sun.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is in favor of requiring that every voter shall be able to at least read and write.

Drs. Whitehead and Long are at work today getting up the plans for their proposed sanitarium to be conducted in this city.

M. H. H. Caldwell, chairman of the Populist executive committee of Carrabus county, gives out that the Populists won't fuse with the Republicans any more.

John Laws, of Hillsboro, is now serving his twenty-third term as register of deeds in Orange county. His father was clerk of the court for forty years and his son treasurer for twelve years.

Frank Scott, a colored driver of Raleigh, drove two deputy collectors out to New Light township, in Franklin county, and while the men were gone the moonshiners held up the driver, looted the carriage and made the negro drive back to Raleigh and leave the raiders to walk.

The "Lynchites," or Sanctified band, seem to have settled down at Southport. Lynch himself and three families are in one two-roomed cottage. The rooms are small, but it is just the sort of promiscuous living to which it is charged this much-condemned sect has been accustomed.

Mr. George Sigmon, of Catawba county, were informed, last week refused an offer of $1,000 for 1,000 bushels of wheat. Mr. Sigmon refused the offer because he could not spare the time from his fall plowing to haul the wheat. He is said to have 3,000 bushels on hand.—Lincolnton Journal.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction says that last February he was informed that in one county where one negro child was unable to read and write, two or three white children were unable to do so. He was asked what was the county, but declined to say. He said this was the cause of his writing the letter urging that ability to read and write be a prerequisite of citizenship.

A special to the News and Observer says: The barn of Hon. Thomas M. Cheek, of Orange county, near Mebane, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire was discovered by the family at 8 o'clock, and by 9 o'clock the building was consumed. All the horses were saved but one, by the sons of Mr. Cheek, who took the animals out while the building was falling in. Nothing else was saved. Loss probably $1000 to $1200.

Otho Wilson says he told the Treasurer that having no means of his own he could not go to Wilmington next week to the hearing before Judge Simonton of the injunction case of the Western Union Telegraph Company against the 15 cents rate on messages. The State Treasurer refuses to pay his expenses. Otho says he doesn't want the impression to go out that he will not do the State's business. He may be able to borrow the money necessary. If so, he will go. It is probable that he will go.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

An engaged girl may feel awfully sure of everything, but she doesn't eat many onions till after she gets married.

After a girl has once decided that she wont have a man if he asks her, she will never forgive him for not asking her.

No man ever respected a girl much till he made her lose her temper.

When a rich girl's hair looks like streaked molasses candy, it is said to be of the color of spun gold.

Down at the bottom of every woman's prayer is a reminder to the Lord that he knows she has to put up with so much from her husband.

Hens had teeth till they took to eating gravel, so they could crow like roosters did.—N. Y. Press.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Col. W. H. Osborne returned home yesterday from Chicago via Harrisburg, Pa., and Baltimore. He says the wave of prosperity has struck the west, and that the general tone of business is perceptibly strengthened and improved.

Will Expel Jose Ventre.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 29.—It is probable that Jose Ventre, the anarchist recently expelled from France, will be sent back to that country by the Mexican authorities. Every effort to get Ventre into the United States so far has failed, and it is believed that the Mexican officials will no longer tolerate Ventre's presence in that country.

HORSE FRANTIC WITH FRIGHT

Plunges Down South Elm and Pitches on the Track

IN FRONT OF A MOVING TRAIN

Plucky Fight of the Woman Driver. Picked up Unconscious, but Not Seriously Injured.

Greensboro has been having more than her share of runaways for the last few days, but the most sensatienal and dangerous occurred this morning about half past ten o'clock. A horse driven by Mrs. Robert Murray became frightened at a man walking on stilts and ringing a bell on South Elm street. beyond the railroad and plunged down that street, toward the depot, growing more and more unmanageable at each jump as he zigzagged across the street from side to side. In front of J. C. Olives, wholesale grocery store, he stumbled over a piece of gas pipe lying beside the curbing, collided with a light pole, and pitched headlong onto the railroad, in front of an incoming train. W. H. Andrew who controls the crossing, seeing the emergency, seized a flag and flagged the oncoming train in time to prevent its striking the horse and vehicle. The buggy struck the curbing as the horse collided with the post and overturned, throwing Mrs. Murray violently into the street and fortunately, clear of the vehicle which was dragged after the falling horse.

Mrs. Murray was picked up unconscious and carried into the office of Olive & Company, and Dr. Beall was was summoned. She soon recovered consciousness and was taken home. Mr. Murray said she did not seem to be injured seriously, though the shock was terrific for the moment. The only danger is in the reaction from the shock and nervous strain.

Those who saw the runaway, said they never saw greater courage and coolness than Mrs. Murray displayed. They declared she showed perfect composure, and continued to pull the animal and did not relax her efforts to get him under control, until thrown from the buggy.

The horse has a gash to the bone on one side of the head extending above the eye and another on the hip and suffered internal injuries. He had to be dragged clear of the track where he fell, and a pool of blood showed where he lay. The buggy was considerably wrecked. Some men who saw the accident cut the horse loose from the buggy and succeeded in getting him to the lot in the rear of Olive's grocery store.

PASSED THE HIGH WATER MARK.

University Goes Her Antebellum Record One Better.

President Alderman was at the Merchants' and Manufacturers' club last night and told a Telegram man that the University yesterday surpassed her previous record. The largest enrollment in the history of the institution was 461 students, while the en ollment yesterday, exclusive of the summer school, reached 462. President Alderman is greatly pleased both with the number and personel of the students. He says he has been especially struck with the absence of rowdyism and occasions that call for the discipline of the faculty.

The alumni hall, he says, is now assured, and a committee has the location under advisement and so soon as a decision is reached work on the building will begin. The hall is to contain rooms for all the executive part of the University.

The football team has five ex-captains and is hard at work every afternoon.

The Show.

But three more nights remain in which to visit Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's show at West's park. So far each night's entertainment has been highly amusing to the large audiences and in every respect the show has been strictly first-class, humorons, but refining, elevating and perfectly free from any vulgar language or indecent scenes as well. The ladies present each night speak of the manner and propriety in which the entertainments are conducted.

Changes of program will be given nightly for the balance of the week, closing Saturday night with a grand double bill and all feature program, presenting the strongest and best bill of the engagement. On this occasion a four-round Marquis of Queensbury glove contest (for points only) will be given by the McDade brothers, which will doubtless prove very interesting.

Papers Galore in Raleigh.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

"It is said that the morning paper here will publish an afternoon edition. The Republicans calculate that they will have a weekly here by January 1. It is learned that a canvass is now in progress in the interest of another morning Democratic daily at Raleigh."

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

John A. Murchison went to Reidsville on the noon train.

Capt. E. S. Parker, of Graham, came up on the noon train.

Eugene E. Gray, ex-mayor of Winston, was here today and left on the Raleigh train.

J. W. Ashburn and wife, of this city, went to Winston yesterday. They think of locating there.

M. C. McDonald, of West End, Moore county, was here last night and left on the east bound train this morning.

Mrs. A. Weatherly and children have returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs. Weatherly's relatives near Madison.

Bill boards to be used by the circus people, are being put up in different parts of the city. The lot just south of the Benbow, from the street corner to Johnson & Dorsett's store is being utilized for this purpose. The advertising agent and the bill posters are expected here tomorrow. The exact date of the circus performance in this city is not yet known.

Miss Bertha Creighton and her company passed through here this morning from Danville to Raleigh. On account of the fever in the south, Miss Creighton had to cancel her engagement in Atlanta, and Manager Blackburn, of the Academy of Music, has induced her manager to play here for one night. She will produce Romeo and Juliet here on the night of Oct. 12. There is a rare treat in store for lovers of the beautiful.

MADE THE LAME FLY.

A New Discovery Which Eclipses All Others.

The room in the rear and immediately adjoining the mayor's office, is used by the live business firm of T. M. Pickard & Co. as a storage for a large stock of staple groceries. The weight became so great that on yesterday the floor collapsed with a terrific crash.

Sitting inside the mayor's office and next to the partition between the office and storage room were two young attorneys, well known in dramatic circles. One of these gentlemen walks with a cane. When the mighty crash came this gentleman forgot his cane and went out at the door at a 2:30 gait.

And it is related of the other gentleman that he rose from his seat near the door and sailed to the outer edge of the sidewalk with all the ease and grace of a swift-winged swallow in a hurry.

We have read of remedies that will make the lame walk, but this is a new discovery which makes 'em fly.

We are glad to say, however, that no serious damage resulted. Both gentlemen have recovered their good looks, and all is calm and serene again.

Will Locate Here.

John W. King, a hustling traveling man for the Drummond Tobacco Company, of St. Louis, has decided to embark in the leaf tobacco business for himself, and will locate in Greensboro.

They are coming, and it might be well to watch the procession. One by one, new business enterprises spring up. A little time, sirs, a little time, and then look at Greensboro. We welcome all such men as Mr. King.

The band will soon begin to play and now is the time to secure a seat.

Revenue Men Change Places.

Col. W. H. Chapman, of the revenue office here, left for Lynchburg, Va., today to take the place vacated by Capt. Bouldin, who for two years, has had charge of the revenue office in that city. Capt. Bouldin arrived today to take the place in the office vacated by Col. Chapman. In other words, the men simply change places. They both have exceilent records in the revenue service and the exchange of places is only in keeping with the regulations of the department.
